Istanbul Haber

Welcome to day 2!

Yesterday was filled with meetings, more meetings, food, and drinking. Everyone had a good time at the Ocakbasi restaurant.

Most of us will long remember the "cozy" time we had on the metro pretending to be sardines on the way to meet the bus to the restaurant.

Today we'll be meeting with our friends at SkySQL.

Weather

10-16C today with light rain showers all day.

Today's Schedule

09:00-10:00	Email & Hacking time (Public)
10:00-11:00	SkySQL & Monty Program (public) (All MPs need to be present)
11:00-11:15	Small coffee break.
11:15-12:30	SkySQL & Monty Program (not public) (All MPs need to be present)
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:00	Hacking in groups / unconference (Public) MWL#116/libmysqld.so planning (Kristian, Serg, Monty)
14:00-15:15	Facebook session "Running MySQL at scale" (public)

Interesting News

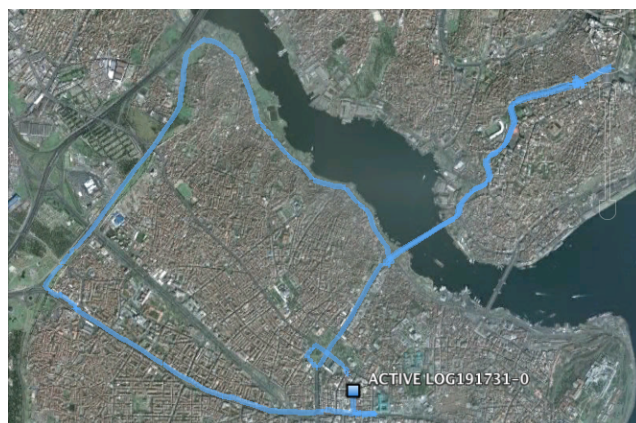

Poker last night was fun. The last survivor from Monty Program was Henrik.

15:15-15:45	Break.
15:45-16:30	Intel Session (public)
16:30-17:30	Hacking in Groups MySQL, MariaDB, Percona, Facebook patch, Tivo patch: Is there a way towards more unified development - like a common tree vs on branch each. (Public, hosted by Henrik) Background: http://tinyurl.com/278sjxh
19:00-???	Joint dinner with SkySQL. We will need no bus. We will take the Metro to the old city. The restaurant is Silia.

Our Route Last Night

Sanja provided us with a gps recording of the route we took last night.

As you can see, we went in a big circle.
