Did you know? Beneath the streets of Lisbon's downtown shopping area lies a hidden Roman Underworld with chambers, rooms, bridges and corridors. The entrance to this fascinating world is marked by a block of metal at the top of Rua da Conceicao which is only open to the public two days a year due to the dangerous conditions lurking below.

A tip from Bryan: If you need to use the restroom (w/ c, bathroom, etc...) and the facilities where you are at only have a single letter on the door: 'H' is for men, 'S' is for women.
